

Corrections

Because The LATIN Road to English Grammar is sold through many catalogs and stores, we feel that the best way to handle corrections is to post them on the web site for all to make note.

Volume II

Textbook:

Page 95: C3: pauci should be pauca.

Page 100: C7: vitam bonum should be vitam bonam.

Worksheet Answer Key: Chap. 11: #43: tres should be tria.

Text Answer Key:

Chap 13: Exercise A9 (#1): driven should be collected or forced; B4 (#2) erint should be erunt.

Test 7: Add the verb reducere lead back to the vocabulary at bottom of test.

Volume III

Textbook:

Pg. 5: Partitive Place from Which: Unus should be Una; Paucos should be pauca.

Pg. 27: Top of page: remove whose and the sentence, “Whose^book is this?” from the section on Interrogative Adjectives.

Pg. 118: Exercise E2: duos should be duo.

Pg. 130: Exercise A4: Remove facio (and remove fiat from text answer key).

Pg. 136: Ablative example at bottom of page: audirent should be audiremus.

Text Answer Key:

Chap 2: Exercise D3: adjective should be pronoun.

Chap. 11: Exercise D5: camp is Abl P; magnam should be magnum. In the English translation of the Reading, end of second paragraph, the word always was omitted from, “Yet we always ought to show...”

Chap 13: Exercise E9: Rewrite sentence to the following:

3rd S Pres	Nom S (Super)	Pres Act Infin	Acc S	non	Fut Act Infin	Acc S
It is	very^difficult	to believe	that the brave^ soldier	will not	accept	this^reward.
Difficillimum est credere militem fortem hoc praemium non accepturum (esse).

Chap. 17: Exercise A4: second answer should be 1st S Fut - I shall promise;

Exercise E8: venerit should venerint.

Worksheet Answer Key:

Chap. 5: #36: manebant should be manebat.

Test Answer Key:

Test 8: #18: ab aliquo should be a quisquo; #30: soldier should be messenger.

Lesson Plan:

Chap. 3: In section 3.2 and the first line of Order of Teaching, the reference to page 24 should be page 33.